Dear Families and Students,

Grandparents' Day is next month and in honor of that special day, I want to invite you to attend a unique event called "An Intergenerational Conversation."

At the event, children and their grandparents will share ideas on how to make spending time together extra special. The event starts with a Keynote Speaker on the importance of intergenerational relationships, followed by a panel of local students talking about what they like to do or would like to do with their Grandparents. I know you'll hear some great ideas and, perhaps, you can share some of your ideas too!

The event is free, and there will be light refreshments and cool door prizes.

Here are the details:

Date: Saturday, September 7 (day before Grandparents Day)

Time: 2:00 pm – 5:00 pm

Where: Philip S. Miller Library, 100 Wilcox St., Castle Rock

Register: www.mydougcoseniorlife.com

Space is limited, you must be registered to attend.

Registration closes August 30, 2019.

Presented in partnership with the Seniors' Council of Douglas County, Douglas County School District and The Foundation for Douglas County Schools.

Artful Learning®

Meadow View is an Artful Learning School. Artful Learning is a school improvement model that stimulates and deepens academic learning through the Arts. The four main quadrants of the Artful Learning model (EXPERIENCE, INQUIRE, CREATE and REFLECT) encourage and support best teaching practices while improving the manner in which both students and teachers learn. Classrooms systematically employ the four quadrants to strengthen understanding, retention and application. Be sure to check out our Artful Learning web page to learn more how the arts are uniquely integrated into our curriculum.
